Pictures

It's a sad and disappointing month for me as I have to send out the newsletter with not a single photo from the Belivat trial last month. I just need a few photos to liven the newsletter up, please find a couple minutes on the day to take a couple photos and put them on Facebook or email them to me, Fraser and myself were both unable to make the trial and hence no photos. Please take out your snazzy camera phone and take a snap or the newsletter will be as boring and uninteresting as this every month!!!
