KINREVE TRIAL REPORT – APRIL 2019

The morning of the trial started weirdly - Roy Panton was early and Rob Hellett who lives a couple of miles away was late !!!!!. 11 entries on the day.

The first two sections were reasonably easy to get everyone going.

Third and fourth sections got a bit trickier with no one making it through the last gate in section 3. Last two gates on section 4 was on a side slope with a bog on the downward side - a few had to be pulled out from here.

Section 5 was a crossing of the mud run about 4 times which got a couple stuck. Section 6 was up and down a peaty bank and finishing through a bog then up another bank. This was where Ian in the Jeep got stuck - a little too much wellie up the bank and was going too fast to turn left and nose dived into the bog.

Sections 7 and 8 used the mud run in both directions with a small detour through a couple of boggy bits that Jason found when he was setting up. Managed to catch a few of them in this.

I hope every one enjoyed the sections and look forward to seeing all of them again at Nuide at the end of May.

Neil.

MANY THANKS TO NEIL TAYLOR, CoC.

Highland 4 Wheel Drive Club extends grateful thanks to Mr Iain Bannerman for hosting the club's KINREVE event.
